

Historian's Report
Nov.-December 2025

*Met with a resident of Brant Lake Estates and provided information and photos concerning some of the homes there as well as the original home

*spent a great deal of time researching on-line newspapers concerning East Shore Drive in the 1960's, unfortunately finding very little

*finished and submitted an article to the BrantLaker

*undertook a major filing project in my office, filing several of boxes of clippings and organizing files

*prepared office for Christmas and visit from Adirondack Architectural Heritage

*contacted Ana Williams-Bergen from North Country Public Radio concerning our summer program, she will let me know when she begins scheduling for next summer. We are on the top of her list, but she has not begun working on this yet.