

Town of Horicon Historian's Report – June 2026

* completed 3 more slide shows that will run in my office during Food Truck Friday

*Researched the Reise Estate in Adirondack for the current owners (formerly the Shaw property/Jingling Spurs)

*provided information concerning the former Heintzelman Estate *delivered microfilm to Glens Falls to be copied *attended Warren County Historian's quarterly meeting

*continued working on North Country at Work project. I have a few spaces open, but my contact with NCPR is happy with what we have so far. I'm hoping Bob and Sylvia will agree to do this and have a few people I'm waiting for confirmation from.
